

News Release

(HOLDREGE, Neb.) -- The Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District will hold stakeholders meetings in April for cabin-owners and the public with interest in Central's reservoirs and lakes.

The format of the meetings will be a series of presentations by representatives from Central, followed by an "open house" to provide an opportunity for stakeholders to visit with Central personnel.

All meetings will begin at 7:00 p.m., (local time) with one hour of presentations, followed by one hour of open house. Meetings have been scheduled on:

- Mon., April 6 at the Monsanto Water Utilization Learning Center, 76268 Highway 47 south of Gothenburg, for stakeholders at Jeffrey and Midway lakes, and other Supply Canal lakes in the immediate area;
- Tues., April 7 at the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission's Lake McConaughy Visitors Center, near Ogallala for Lake McConaughy stakeholders; and
- Wed., April 8 at the Holiday Inn Express, 2605 Plum Creek Parkway in Lexington for stakeholders at Johnson Lake, Plum Creek Canyon Lake and other area Supply Canal lakes.

Tentative topics of the presentations are the history and operations of Central's hydro-irrigation project, and current and future permitting under Central's federally required Land and Shoreline Management Plan.
